(LAS VEGAS & Henderson, Nev.) – Public radio station KCEP-FM 88.1 in association with The City of Henderson present the 2ND Annual Power 88 Super Soul Gospel Fest 2010 at the Henderson Pavilion, 200 S. Green Valley Parkway, on Saturday Oct. 2, 2010 with national gospel-recording artist Kurt Carr and The Kurt Carr Singers featured. Vanessa Bell Armstrong, the Legendary Keith Pringle and Elder Goldwire McClendon are also set to perform. Gates open at 12 p.m. with entertainment and activities until 8 p.m. Tickets start at $15.

Kurt Carr and the Kurt Carr Singers will perform all their hits live as part of the afternoon and evening of family fun, fellowship and down home gospel entertainment and praise. Carr is a Stellar and Dove Award-winner and has performed all over the world, including for President George W. Bush in the White House in 2008.

In addition to Kurt Carr and The Kurt Carr Singers, Vanessa Bell Armstrong, the Legendary Keith Pringle and Elder Goldwire McClendon, the event will feature performances by local church choirs, praise teams and dancers throughout the day. A wide variety of local food, craft and apparel vendors will also provide festival-goers the best in local culture, taste experiences and gifts. Children will enjoy plenty of activities and entertainment including jumpers, face painting and balloon magic.

"This is the 2nd Annual Super Soul Gospel Fest and Power 88 is very excited to showcase Kurt Carr," said KCEP-FM general manager Craig Knight. "Both Kurt Carr and Vanessa Bell Armstrong are dynamic performers and we are blessed to have them, and it will be great to see Keith Pringle and Elder McClendon as well. It's going to be a fantastic day of family entertainment and super Gospel music."
